Plagiarism in the era of Chat GPT... is still a Crime

- Stealing, copying and pretending someone else's ideas or words are our own.
- Using someone else's work (including A.I.) without crediting them or citing the source.
- Presenting as new and original an existing idea or product.

Anglophone Section Resources

Anglophone Section Library

Parent-volunteers help to keep the library open as much as possible, for the benefit of our students.

If you can spare a regular 1-2 hours each week to help out please contact:
secondarylibrary@csianglo.org

The Anglophone Section Library

‘Library Rules’ posters to explain:

- How and when you can use the library.
- Behaviour in the library.
- Borrowing books, and what happens if your book is overdue / lost / damaged.

Anglophone Section Secondary Library

When is the Library open?

- Check the library timetable to see the opening hours.
- The timetable is on the library door, the Anglophone classrooms and on Google Classroom.

How do I return a library book?

Library books can be dropped in one of the return boxes in:

- The Library
- The Anglophone Teachers Book Room
- The Anglophone Office

I'm in collège - can I come to the library during permanence?

- Yes you can! You'll need to collect a slip from the vie scolaire first, then show it to the librarian.
- All students need to sign in when they come to the library.

What can I do in the library?

- You can... browse the books, read, study... quietly!
- Eating is not permitted.
- You cannot use your phone in the library.

How can I borrow books?

- Once you've chosen a book, take it to the librarian in charge and they will check it out for you.
- You can borrow a maximum of 2 books at a time, for up to 2 weeks.
- If you want to renew your loan, bring the book back to the library and ask the librarian to check it out for you again.
- If someone else has asked to borrow the book, you won't be able to renew it.

Please don't leave books in the classrooms as they can get lost!

Help - my book is overdue!

- You will receive an email telling you that your book is due to be returned.
- After this email you have 1 week to return the book to the library.
- If you don't, your parents will be contacted and asked to pay for the book to be replaced.

What happens if I lose a book?

Tell the librarian in charge about lost / damaged books. Your parents will be contacted by email and asked to pay for the book to be replaced.

Have you got any suggestions for new books? Or any improvements for the library?

You can write your ideas down and leave them in the suggestions box. We'd love to hear from you!

Finding an Internship (stage en entreprise)

UG Presentation: Think about your Stage

Coming later this term!

An important part of 3ème is finding a stage.

- Internships are a good way to explore careers you might be interested in.
- Internships are essential part of the application process to overseas universities.
- It shows you are a self-starter and that you have thought about what you want to do later in life
- It helps you to begin making choices about what you want to study at university.

Thank You & Have a Great Year !
