Our Primary Section is looking to recruit an enthusiastic and experienced, full-time classroom teacher to join our highly passionate team. The chosen candidate will teach three Literacy classes across differing year groups per week, to Anglophone students aged between 6 and 11.

The position is a short term contract (CDD) to cover a maternity leave from Monday 6th November 2023 until Feb 16th, 2024, with the possibility of renewal.

Hours are split across the week between teaching, planning and other duties, as outlined below:

- 18 teaching hours per week
- 2 hours of extracurricular activities
- 22 hours planning, prep, support and meeting time

The successful applicant will be placed upon the internal pay scale according to the level of their qualifications and experience.

We are looking for:

- a fully native level of English and strong Literacy skills
- a relevant degree and teaching qualification diploma
- the necessary documentation to legally work in France
- strong interpersonal skills and be able to collaborate successfully within an already well established and close-knit team
- preferably 2 years, or more, Primary-level teaching experience in an English-speaking setting

About us:

The Anglophone Section at the Cité Scolaire Internationale (CSI) Lyon provides a world-class and comprehensive education to its students from across the English-speaking world. The Primary Team are proud to offer a dynamic and challenging curriculum within a vibrant setting; with a focus on high level literature.
