Anglophone Section Secondary Library

When is the Library open?

- Check the library timetable to see the opening hours.
- The timetable is on the library door, the Anglophone classrooms and on Google Classroom.

I'm in collège - can I come to the library during permanence?

- Yes you can! You'll need to collect a slip from the vie scolaire first, then show it to the librarian.
- All students need to sign in when they come to the library.

What can I do in the library?

- You can... browse the books, read, study... quietly!
- Eating is not permitted.
- You cannot use your phone in the library.

How can I borrow books?

- Once you've chosen a book, take it to the librarian in charge and they will check it out for you.
- You can borrow a maximum of 2 books at a time, for up to 2 weeks.
- If you want to renew your loan, bring the book back to the library and ask the librarian to check it out for you again.
- If someone else has asked to borrow the book, you won't be able to renew it.

How do I return a library book?

Library books can be dropped in one of the return boxes in:

- The Library
- The Anglophone Teachers Book Room
- The Anglophone Office

Please don't leave books in the classrooms as they can get lost!

Help - my book is overdue!

- You will receive an email telling you that your book is due to be returned.
- After this email you have 1 week to return the book to the library.
- If you don't, your parents will be contacted and asked to pay for the book to be replaced.

What happens if I lose a book?

Tell the librarian in charge about lost / damaged books. Your parents will be contacted by email and asked to pay for the book to be replaced.
