

Welcome to the Anglophone Section at the CSI Lyon

Monday 2 September 2024

Dr Herd - Head of Section

Nice
to meet
you.

Here to Support You

The essence of teaching is not to make simple things complicated but to make complicated things seem simple.

Anglophone Section Structure

Why the Anglophone Section?

English is the medium of instruction

Historical merger of the British & U.S. Sections

Leading to two streams of study : US Option & UK Option

A name that better reflects the cosmopolitan & inclusive nature of the Section

32 different nationalities in the Anglophone Section

Overview of the Section

- The largest of 9 International Sections within the CSI.
- 570+ students in 2023-2024, we make up a quarter of all students at the CSI.
- A founding Section of the CSI, with a history of over 30 years.
- Operates in partnership with the CSI, the Rectorat, the Region and the Ville de Lyon.
- We have 20 members of staff:
 - 15 secondary teachers, 4 primary teachers plus 1 teaching assistant
 - 3 administrative personnel
 - 1 Head of Section
- 4 Education National teachers are seconded to the Section.
- All our teachers have native-level English speaking proficiency and English is very much the working language of the Section.

Understanding the Anglophone Section

APESA

(Association des Parents d'Elèves de la Section Anglophone)

The Anglophone Section

Cité Scolaire Internationale

Running of the Section

- Private Section within a French public school
- Different model to the French National Education model and other CSI Sections
- The CSI Lyon is responsible for:
 - allocating the number of places given to the Section
 - running all pedagogical aspects of the CSI relating to the Education National
 - general discipline, timekeeping, behaviour within the school, pastoral care
 - the school premises & catering.
- The Anglophone Section is responsible for:
 - student admissions
 - all learning and teaching that goes on during Section hours
 - the recruitment of Section teachers
 - the daily running of Section operations
 - extra-curricular activities and other Anglophone Section initiatives.

Anglophone Section Fees

- As a result of having no government funding, unlike other Sections, the Anglophone Section is fee-paying.
- The Anglophone Section is a non-profit association
 - Association loi 1901 reconnue d'intérêt général
- The fees paid by parents are used to:
 - pay salaries of Anglophone Section staff (85-90% of total budget)
 - administer the Section
 - purchase resources for the Section e.g. IT
 - train staff
 - deliver extra-curricular activities
 - organise Anglophone Section events.

APESA - Association des Parents d'Elèves de la Section Anglophone

The APESA has many different facets:

- APESA is the employer of all staff
- APESA is the governing body / board of the Anglophone Section
- APESA also acts as a PTA for social and other aspects of Section life

The Anglophone Section is governed by the APESA Statutes.

APESA ensures the smooth functioning of the Anglophone Section within the CSI by providing oversight, checks and balances.

APESA approves the Anglophone Section yearly budget.

The APESA Board is made up of 12 volunteers elected at the APESA AGM.

The APESA Board is headed by a President, currently Lara Bonucci.

Beyond the Classroom

University Guidance Service

- Anglophone Section students travel far and wide after they leave the school, to universities across the English-speaking world.
- In the past, students have aimed to study in the UK and North America. More recently English-language studies in the Netherlands and other EU countries are increasingly popular. However, this is a constantly evolving context.
- Whatever their aims, our University Guidance service will help students to achieve them.
- Using unifrog.org to help students research courses and organise their applications
- 2nde & 1ère students are encouraged to contact university@csianglo.com to discuss their plans.
- Presentations will be made for each year group (3ème upwards) during the school year.

Extra-Curricular Activities

- Primary pupils are offered activities at lunchtime
 - E.g. Games club, Lego club, Library club
- Collège & lycée activities may be during the day or after school
 - Likely to be offered this year:
 - MUN Debating Clubs
 - ILYMUN Conference & Organising Committee
 - Basketball
 - Drama Club
 - Creative Writing Club
- Full details will be shared with students in due course.

NEWSBITE

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE ANGLOPHONE SECTION AT CSI LYON

Anglophone Section
Cité Scolaire Internationale, Lyon

Welcome to the spring edition of Newsbite!

Spring has sprung in Lyon - a welcome change after a long, cold winter. In the Anglophone Section, we are enjoying the lifting of restrictions in school. The first Section class trip to Grotte Chauvet took place on 4th April, and was a great success. The new Volunteer Committee aims to relaunch the social and community life of the Section, starting with a coffee morning to be held on 6th May and a full calendar of fun events for families in the year ahead. Speaking of new beginnings, the Board is pleased to report that a future Head of Section has been selected for the next academic year, while we prepare to say goodbye to Mr Miller. Read on to find out more about all these events - and more!
