- Borrowing books, and what happens if your book is overdue / lost / damaged.

The poster is titled 'Anglophone Section Secondary Library' and features a blue header with a logo. It contains several sections of text and lists, including: 'When is the Library open?' with bullet points about the timetable; 'How do I return a library book?' with a list of return boxes; 'I'm in collège - can I come to the library during permanence?' with bullet points about sign-in; 'What can I do in the library?' with bullet points about browsing, quietness, and phone use; 'How can I borrow books?' with bullet points about borrowing limits and renewals; 'What happens if I lose a book?' with instructions on reporting lost books; and 'Help - my book is overdue!' with instructions on email notifications. A blue callout bubble asks for suggestions for new books, and a blue box provides contact information for questions.

I'm in collège - can I come to the library during permanence?

- Yes you can! You'll need to collect a slip from the vie scolaire first, then show it to the librarian.
- All students need to sign in when they come to the library.

What can I do in the library?

- You can... browse the books, read, study... quietly!
- Eating is not permitted.

Help - my book is overdue!

- You will receive an email telling you that your book is due to be returned.
